The Hi-X55 headphones from Austrian Audio offer precision, comfort and durability. The closed-back, over-ear design offers high-resolution insight for critical audio work; for error detection; also, due to tuning and detail, ideal for voice-over recordings.

The Hi-X (High Excursion) technology is perfectly suited for contemporary music production: the optimally-sized 44mm driver, unique ring magnet system and copper-clad aluminium voice coil are custom-designed and work together to reduce membrane weight and increase stiffness, improving response, taming unwanted resonance and minimising distortion.

‘Made in Austria’ with no off-the-shelf components. The hardware design and engineering are exceptional with all-metal hinges and headband bow for long-lasting stability and comfort without distraction. The luxury feel is assisted by the soft, memory-foam ear cushions. A fatigue-free experience even for long sessions.

Workflow is assisted by additional features such as foldable design (for portability and storage) and cable adapters to connect to professional or consumer equipment.
