What sets the Studio 10 apart is its versatility. It boasts built-in valve emulated overdrive, a headphone out for silent practice, and a 5-band EQ for fine-tuning your sound. Whether you're a seasoned pro or just starting, this amp is your ticket to sonic excellence.

Built to last, the Studio 10 features heavy-duty tolex and chrome metal corners, ensuring it stays protected and stylish for years to come. Setting up your ideal tone is a breeze with the EQ set at 12 O’clock, delivering that warm yet articulate Ashdown sound right out of the box.

Constructed using super lightweight poplar ply and a specially designed speaker, the Studio 10 shatters the weight barrier without compromising on tone. It's a super lightweight, loud, and versatile combo that every bassist will appreciate.

Heavy duty tolex and chrome metal corners will keep the Studio 10 protected and looking stylish for years to come.

The Studio 10 has everything you need to establish great tone straight out of the box, with the EQ set at 12 O’clock the NEW Studio Range sounds as you would expect from an Ashdown, warm yet articulate.

Constructed using super lightweight poplar ply and a lightweight speaker the Studio 10 really does cut the weight but not the tone.
