Balanced Sound and Superior Response

The resonance box of the 5 P features a unique bracing design, with a thin wood supported by seven bars, two of them at the bottom. This construction detail not only makes the guitar more durable and lightweight but also enhances its sound, giving it more body, warmth, and richness. The melamine "bones" in the saddle and nut are highly sound-transmitting, contributing to a well-defined and consistent tone across the entire fretboard. Experience a melodious and distinctive sound, especially notable at the 12th fret.
Versatility in Design and Size

The 5 P model impresses not only with its sound but also offers versatility in its design. Available also in Cut Away (CW) format for easy access to the lower part of the fingerboard and in Narrow Body (CT) format for more comfortable vertical play. This instrument also caters to various size preferences and is available for left-handed guitarists. Discover the freedom of musical expression with an instrument that adapts to your unique style.
